Sue Doody, the visionary behind Lindey's, held a deep passion for nurturing the arts by sharing a culinary vision that brought the community together and supported its local artists. She opened Lindey's, adorned with the artwork of Tony Cochran, a talented Columbus artist who has been part of the community since 1974. When asked about having his art featured in the restaurant, he expressed his gratitude to Lindey's for providing him with his initial opportunity to showcase his paintings to the public. "This menu design serves as a heartfelt tribute to the significance of that first opportunity in my artistic journey," he warmly shared.
